Who We Are

What We Do

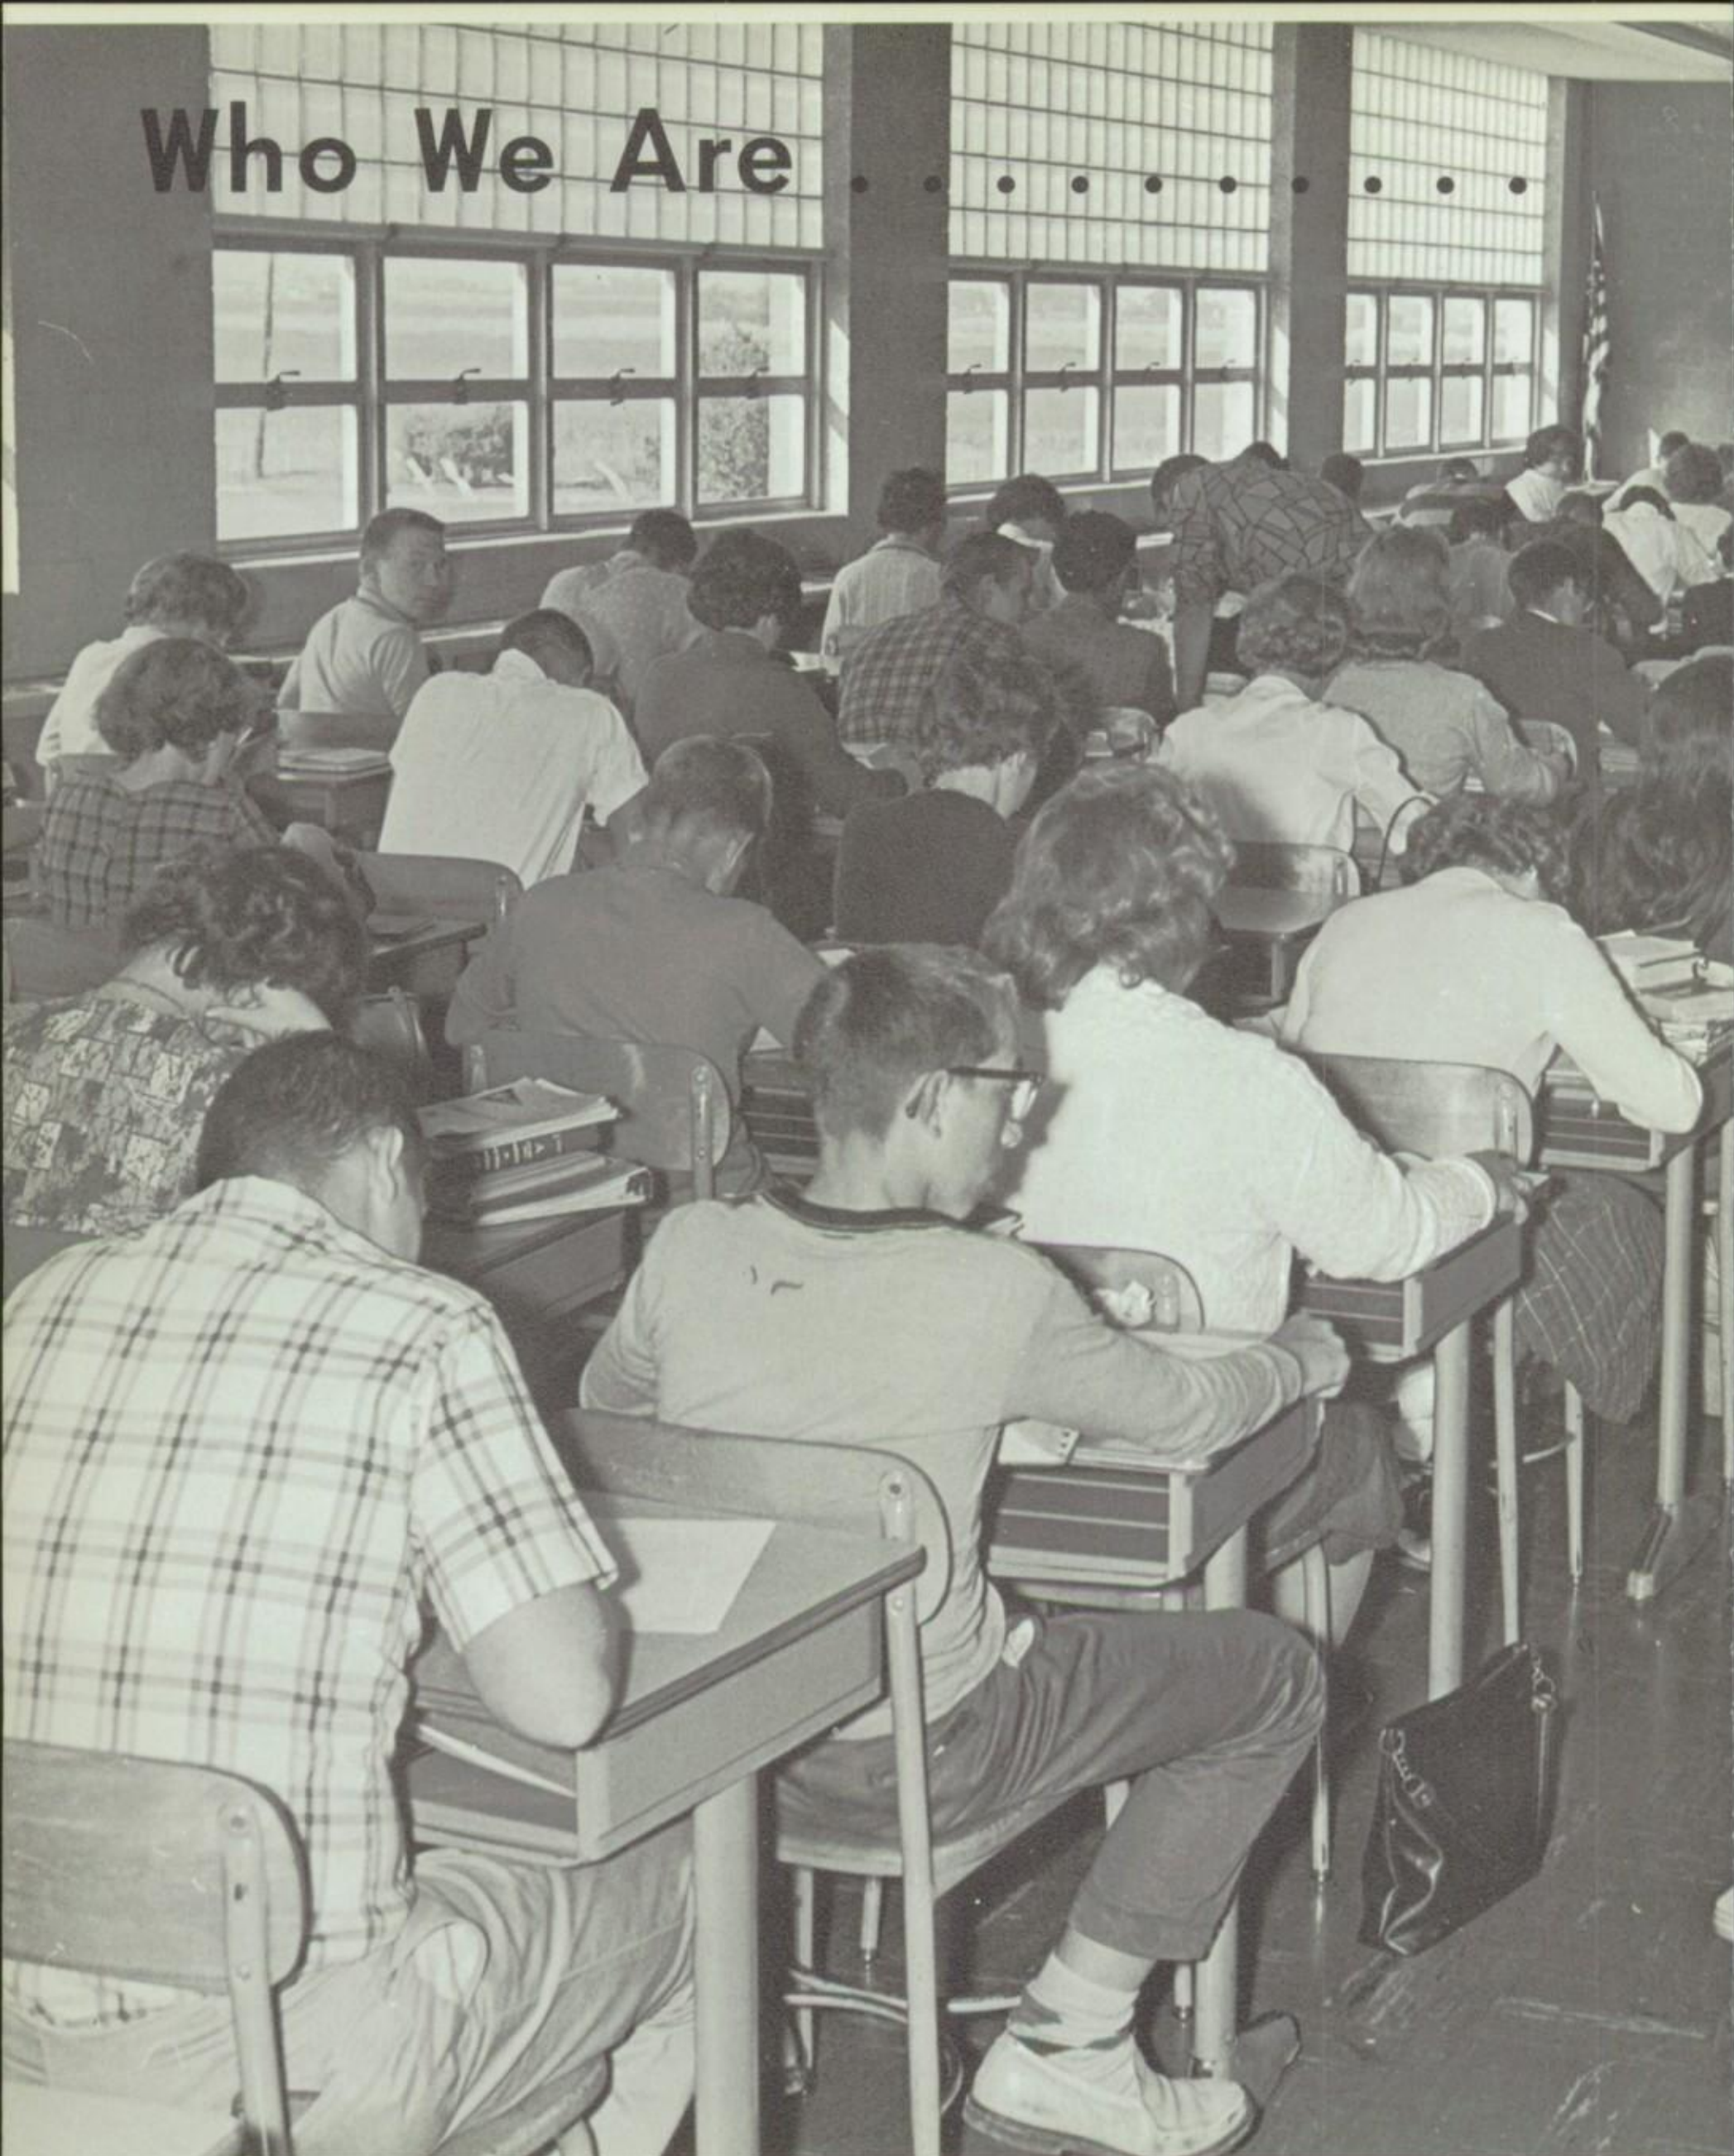

Foreword

Through the passing of time, our memories fade, and what was once a clear distinct image is now a hazy recollection of what was once so close to us. It is the purpose of the 1962 CRYSTAL to preserve these memories that, to us, are now so clear. It is the purpose of the 1962 CRYSTAL to preserve the feelings and emotions of a period of our life that formed and molded our body and mind. It is the purpose of the 1962 CRYSTAL to retain the good times and fellowship that we, the students of Clay High, have experienced during the past year.

Who We Are

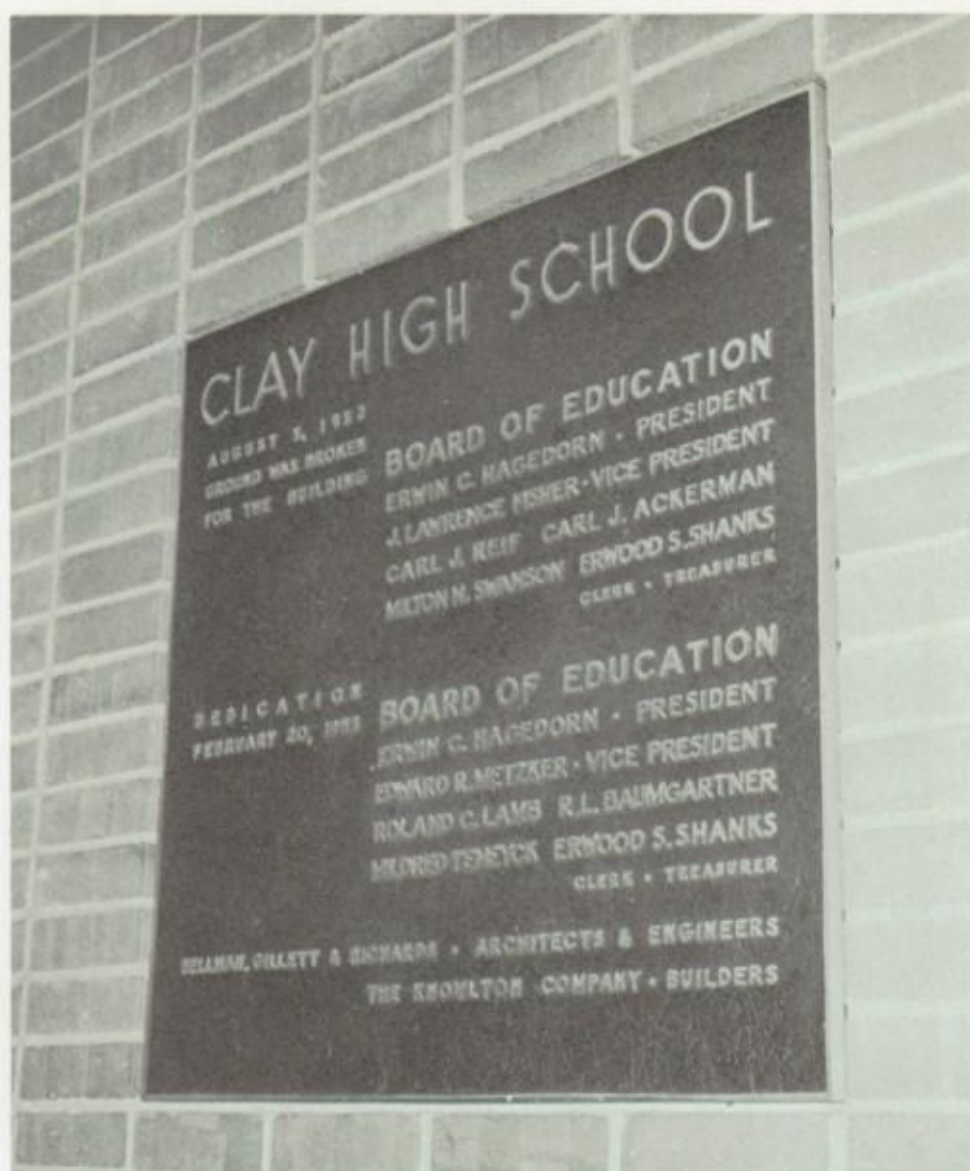

Who . . .

We are the students, faculty and administrators of Clay High School. We are the victories and defeats of athletic encounters. We are the accomplishments and satisfaction of scholastic achievement. We are the memories of a beautiful dance and a few packed lunch hours. We are Clay High School.

What we do

What

We live. We are a life of work and reward, activity and accomplishments. We are the rehearsals for Teahouse of the August Moon. We are the constant practices of a championship football team. We are the hours spent in publishing the Eagle.

We work. We are a life of study and education, of knowledge and practical application. We are the studies of Shakespeare and Milton, Emerson and Thoreau. We are the experimentations of physics and chemistry. We are the art of home care and the newness of shorthand. We are the excitement of gaining knowledge.

We are typical of American youth. Yet, we are different because we are ourselves. We are the individualism and loyalty that make tradition. We are the students of Clay High.

We represent the student body.

A Closer faculty-student body relationship is the main objective of the Student Council. Members promote an annual charity drive, post the Honor Roll each six weeks, and maintain the lost-and-found department. They also participate in various area activities as members of the Toledo Area Student Council.

The National Honor Society

The greatest honor that can befall a student of Clay High School is that of being elected to the National Honor Society. Members are selected by the faculty at the end of the first semester on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Its induction ceremony is the only function of this type presented as an assembly before the student body.

We inform and educate,

Clay's A Cappella Choir is a group of selected voices which presents a variety of music programs throughout the school year.

Annually the senior members go caroling in all of Oregon's schools. The choir also presents the "Jamboree," a most important production of the year, under the able direction of Mr. Ralph Runyan, who is known by the members as "Chief."

Mary Sue, attired in a rose taffeta gown, circled the stadium in a float prepared by some of her fellow students. Barb and Judy followed in open-air convertibles.

Clay High's 1961 Homecoming should be long remembered by those who observed it. Miss Mary Sue Dreier reigned, and her Royal attendants were Barbara Gurcsik and Judy Aldrich.

H O M E C O M I N G

Student Council president, John Baumgartner, escorted Queen Mary Sue to her Royal throne where he presented her with a congratulatory kiss. Barb and Judy were escorted to their places of honor by Jim Chorba and Dean Stroh. Mary was then officially crowned Queen by Miss Donna Grubb, Homecoming Queen of 1960.

Some of our dances were formal . . .

Attendants were Bonnie Draper and and Donna Baker and Dave Crandall.

In Retrospect

We will remember the many good times we had during 1961-1962. We will remember the Coronation Ball, the Snowball, the Sweetheart Swirl as the formal dances. Then there were many informal get-togethers. There was the Limelighters 2 for 49 Roaring Twenties, the EAGLES Paper Caper and Sadie Hawkins dances. We danced and enjoyed ourselves.

Sadie Hawkins . . .

And we danced informally at the record hops and the clubs' dances.

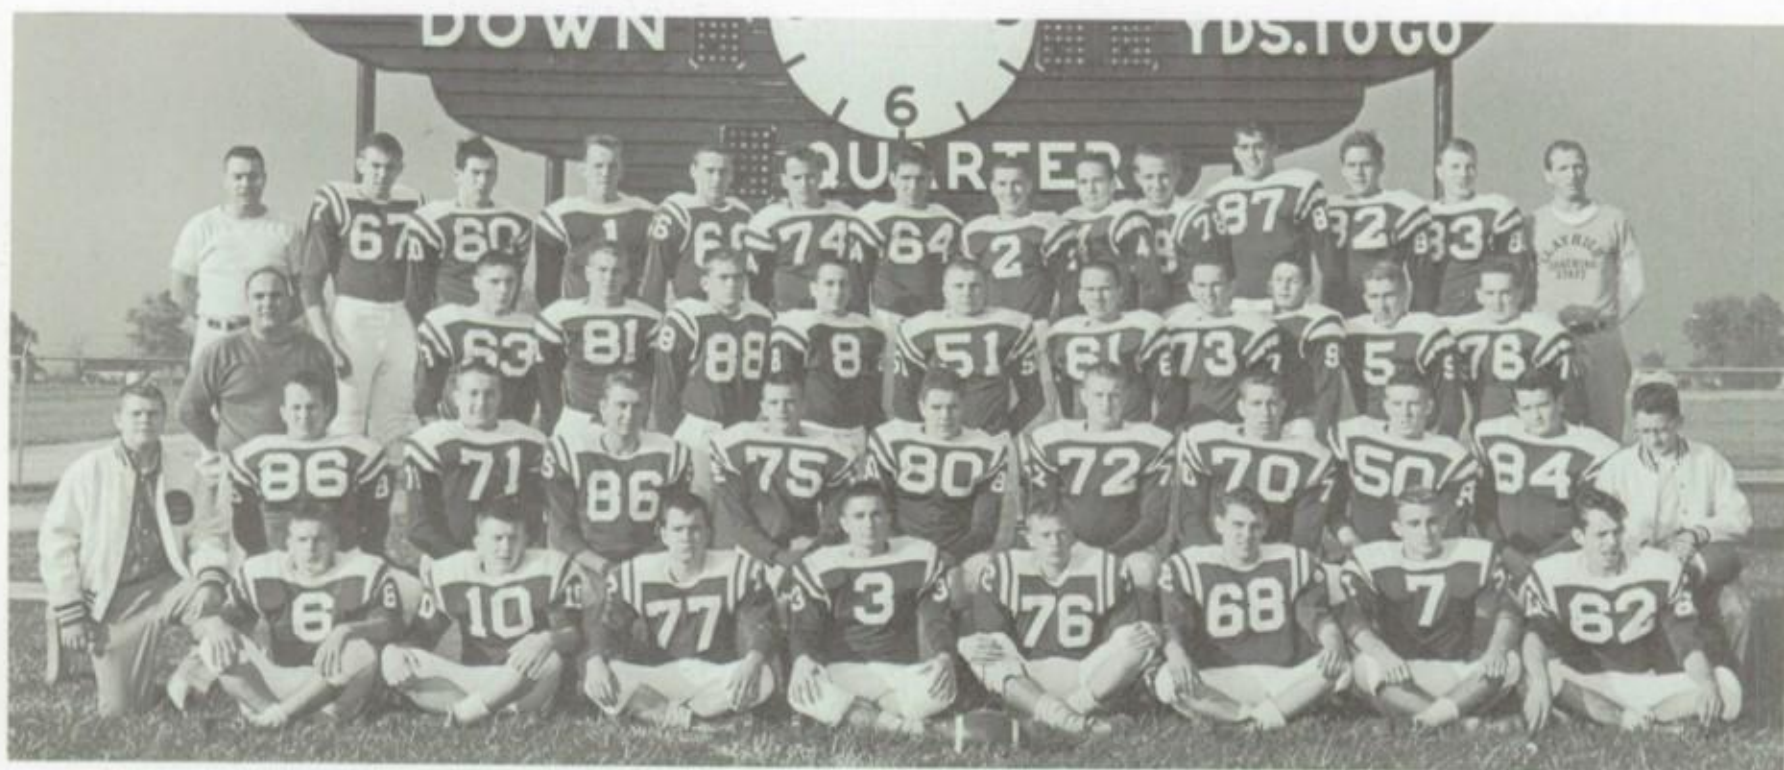

We presented "Teahouse".....

We live a life, day by day.

We enter the familiar doors that lead to knowledge.

We start our day with reverence.

Throughout the day we encounter the newness of Latin, French, and Spanish.

We learn and do many things.

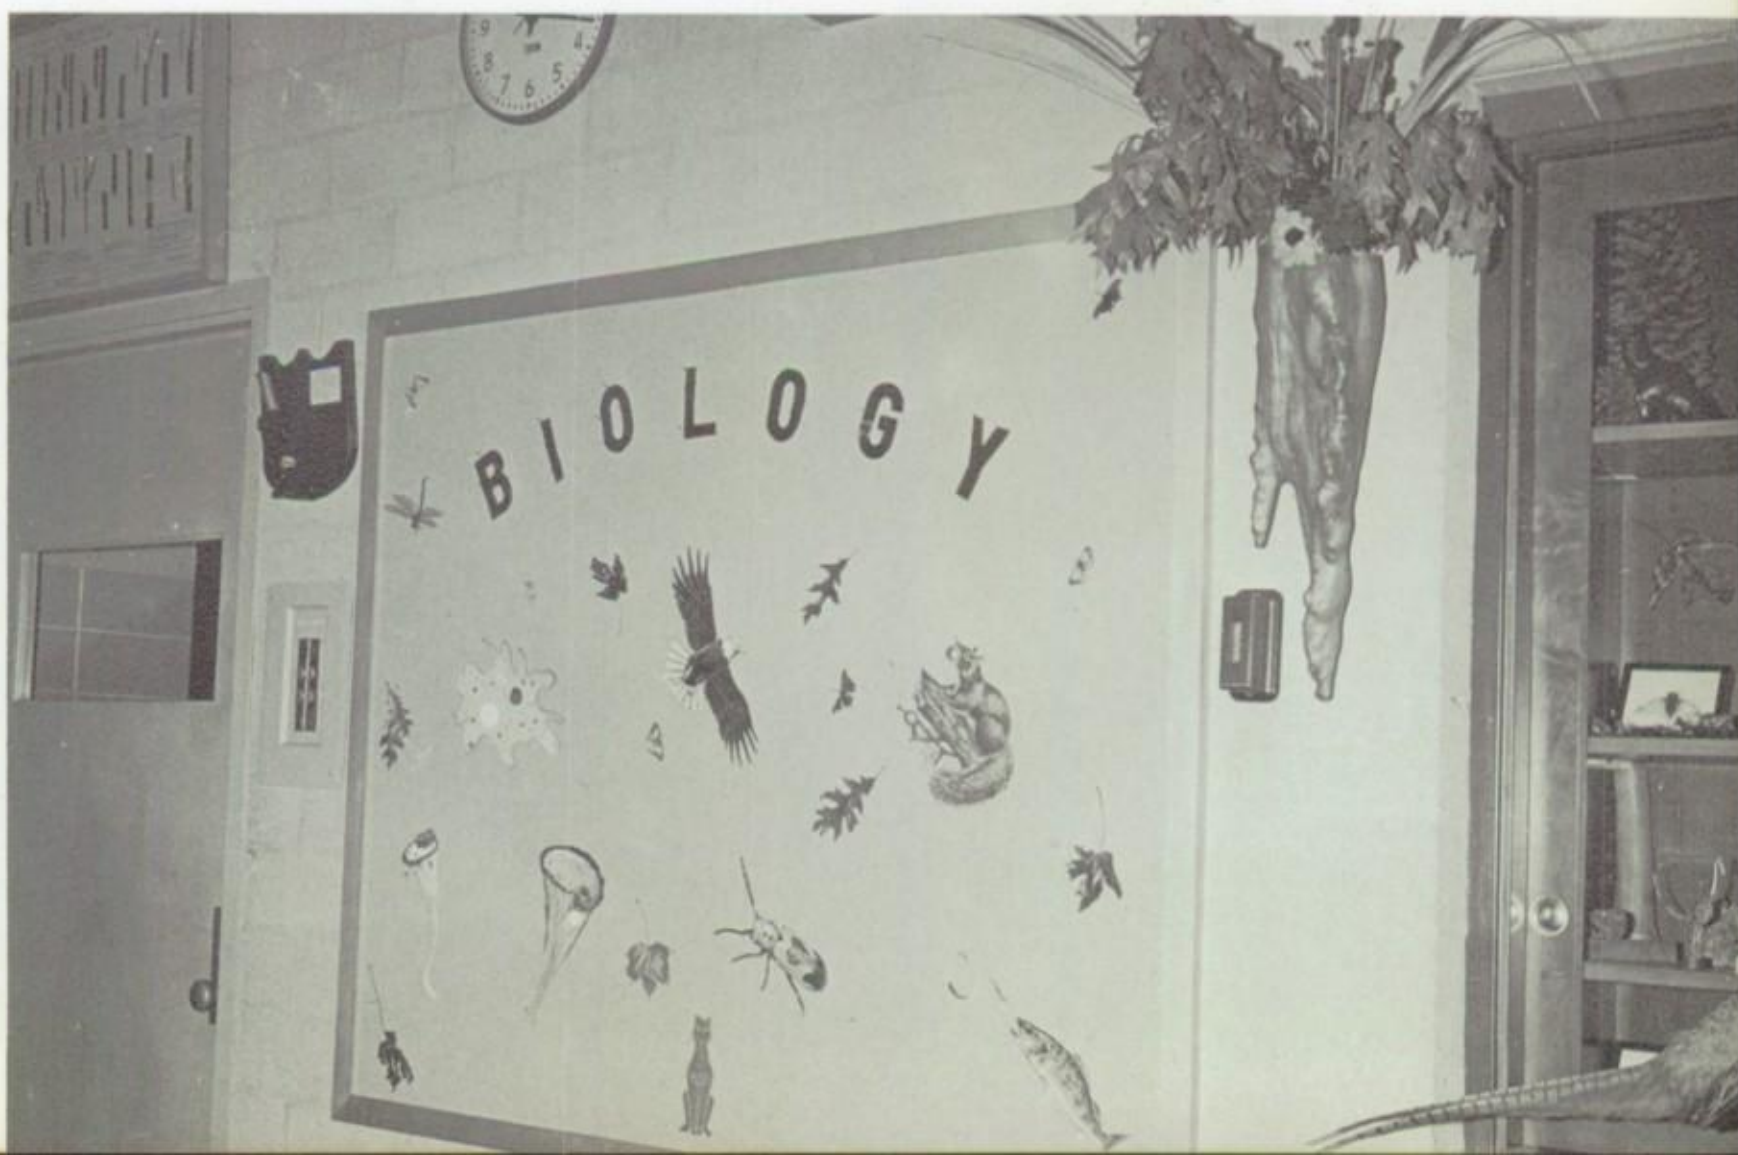

We select our leaders, such as our band's officers.

We are advised and helped by Mr. O'Brien.

We experiment in the fields of biology, chemistry and physics.

The rush to lunch is typical of Clay High students.

The "line-up" provides a time for food and fun.

And you we thank for a job well done.

The chef's class trains the bachlors to be.

[illegible]

A black and white photograph of a large group of students in graduation gowns and stoles, standing in rows on a stage. A man in a suit stands to the left, gesturing towards the group. The background is a simple stage backdrop.

The day ends.

For us, the day of work ends,
but the day of loyalty, tradition and memories, for us, will never end.
